DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-5, 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Paik et al.

Paik et al disclose a semiconductor chip (1), a plastic coating made of polymer (epoxy-based encapsulant) (col 5, line 48) with a thickness between 0.5-50 or below 15 microns (abstract, lines 9, 10)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Paik et al

Art Unit: 2831

The teaching of Paik et al as discussed above does not disclose the plastic coating selected from a thermoplastic, colophony, a phthalate resin, a dimethyl glycol phthalate.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a thermoplastic, colophony, a phthalate resin, or a dimethyl glycol phthalate for the plastic coating of Paik et al, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Claims 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Paik et al

The teaching of Paik et al as discussed above does not disclose the feature of claims 10-12.

The feature of claims 10-12 is well known. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include the features with the package of Paik et al for intended purposes.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 06-12-2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues (1) that Paik et al do not define a thickness of the encapsulation. The examiner disagrees. With respect to (1) Paik et al recite "the package size of the final electronic products not greater than 1.2 times the semiconductor chip size" (abstract) and "a chip size package” (col 5, lines 50-55), “for example, the application of chip size packages which are a kind of super-micro packages” (col 1, lines 35-40). The size of the package of Paik et al is not much larger than the chip and this would inherently meet the limitation a thickness of 0.5-50 micron.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
